About Company

☐ Provided by Customer

KING's Solution believes that businesses should not only succeed in commercial profitability but also actively contribute to social value.

Base on 40 Years Experience, In House Development, Customized machinery.

KING's Solution is committed to developing and manufactrue eco-friendly injection molding machines, drawing from over 40 years of experience in designing, manufacturing, integrating, and employing smart manufacturing technology for plastic injection machines. Our recent strategic shift officially marks a new era of green sustainability, with the goal of becoming an industry benchmark for eco-friendly sustainability in injection machinery.

With over 1,000 specialized injection machines under our belt, we assist customers in curbing resource consumption and waste, improving productivity, and promoting the use of recyclable plastic materials for a more eco-friendly production process. Our products reach 30+ countries worldwide, serving various industries such as electric vehicles, automotive electronics, IT communications, consumer goods, and rubber and silicone processing. We also continually develop equipment for producing PET bottled water containers with the lowest carbon footprint.

Active involvement in green sustainability advocacy is at our core. We firmly believe that plastic remains an essential resource for daily life and should not become disposable waste. Collaborating with relevant organizations, we champion the circular economy of plastic products and environmental education, delivering benefits to both society and business values.

Business Philosophy:

Green Sustainability: Our belief is that through our professional capabilities, we can assist customers in achieving low-carbon emission processes, thus contributing to the global Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs).

Responsibility Mindset: We maintain that individual choices wield power, and taking action can make a difference.

Growth Mindset: Trusting in humanity's boundless potential, we encourage partners to explore new frontiers, maintain an open-minded outlook, and embrace challenges.

Brand Philosophy:

Green Solution, Machine Soulmate

We seek like-minded business partners who share our green vision for sustainable development.
